

“Giosué Giannavello” History Prize

The Fondazione Europea Margherita sets up a biennial prize for an unpublished historical research in the name of Giosué Giannavello, a Waldesian patriot who lived in the second half of the XVIII century.

The research will be about a topic of modern European history, referring to the following fields:

- a) History of religions' wars in Europe between the XVI and XVII centuries.
- b) History of the Institutions of that time.
- c) History of the mentality, the costumes, the culture, the arts of that time.
- d) History of Europe and the international relationships of that time with a special regard to those concerning Piedmont.
- e) Biographies of historical characters of that time.
- f) History of the Savoy's Piedmont.
- g) History of the relationships between Catholics and Waldensians.
- h) Local history of Pinerolo and Waldensians valleys between the XVI and XVII centuries.

Each contestant, who must not be above 30 years old, must send two typewritten copies of his work to:

Fondazione Europea Margherita Ravano Ollivero
Piazza San Marcellino, 19
10060 Bibiana (To)
Italy

The copies will not be given back and must be received no later than 30th June 2004 by recorded-delivery. The text may be in Italian or in French. The works will be come part of the Foundation's Public Library. Graduated and post-graduated thesis are allowed as long as not published.

The first prize will be a cheque of € 1,000; second prize will be € 500.

The jury, nominated by the Fondazione Europea Margherita, composed of competent and professional people, will choose the winners.

The prize will be awarded during a public ceremony in December 2004.